MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

WEDNESDAY, May 1, 1751.

His MAJESTY's moſt gracious SPEECH to both Houſes of Parliament, on Thurſday, the 17th Day of January, 1750.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE poſtpon'd your Meeting to this Time, that I might conſult your private Convenience, as far as was conſiſtent with the Occaſions of the Public. The Continuance of the preſent Tranquility has afforded an Opportunity for the former, and rendered the latter leſs neceſſing. Since the laſt Seſſion, my Care and Attention have been conſtantly employ'd in improving the Situation: And I have the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that I have concluded a Treaty with my good Brother the King of Spain, whereby ſuch particular Differences, as, from the Nature of them, could not be ſettled in a general Treaty, have been amicably adjuſted, without the Intervention of any other Party; and the Commerce of my Subjects with that Country re eſtabliſhed upon the moſt advantageous and ſure Foundations.

In the Progreſs of this Work, I have receiv'd ſuch Aſſurances of the ſincere Diſpoſition of the Catholic King to cement and maintain the moſt perfect Union with me, as leave no Room to doubt of its good Effects, being felt in all Parts; and there is the greateſt Reaſon to hope, that the ancient Friendſhip and good Correſpondence between the two Nations, which had been long unfortunately interrupted, will, from mutual Intereſt and Inclination, be now effectually reſtor'd.

I have alſo, in Conjunction with the Empreſs Queen, and the States-General, concluded a Treaty with the Elector of Bavaria; and am taking ſuch further Meaſures, as may beſt tend to ſtrengthen and ſecure the Tranquility of the Empire; ſupport its Syſtem; and timely prevent ſuch Events, as have been found by Experience to endanger the common Cauſe; involve Europe in the Calamities of War; and occaſion the Loſs of much Blood and Treaſure to my own Kingdoms.

Both theſe Treaties ſhall be laid before you: And, as I have told you the Views with which I have enter'd into them, I muſt do Juſtice to all the contracting Powers in the Definitive Treaty of Aix-la Chapelle, by acquainting you, that I have receiv'd from them the moſt full and clear Declarations of their Reſolution to preſerve the general Peace.

That nothing might be wanting for theſe ſalutary Purpoſes, I have taken Care to ſtrengthen and conſolidate the Ties of Union and Friendſhip between me and my Allies; the better to ſecure our mutual Intereſt, maintain the Peace already ſubſiſting, and to prevent the Occaſion of any future Rupture. And, that there might remain no Doubt of the Uprightneſs and Sincerity of my Intentions, I have made the proper Communications of the Meaſures I have taken, and the Principles on which they have been founded.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered Eſtimates to be laid before you, for the current Service of the Year. I deſire only ſuch Supplies, as ſhall be neceſſary for your own Security, and making good ſuch Engagements as have been contracted, and are now communicated to you. The ſucceſsful and happy Progreſs, which has been made in the Reduction of the Intereſt of the National Debt, does great Honour to this Parliament, and adds much to our Reputation in foreign Countries. So little of this great Work remains unfiniſhed, that I make no Doubt of your compleating it this Seſſion, in the moſt juſt and equitable Manner.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have nothing further to recommend to you in particular; but muſt exhort you in general, to make the beſt Uſe of the preſent State of Tranquility, for improving the Trade and Commerce of my Kingdoms; for enforcing the Execution of the Laws; and for ſuppreſſing theſe Outrages and Violences, which are inconſiſtent with all good Order and Government, and endanger the Lives and Properties of my Subjects, whoſe Happineſs, and flouriſhing Condition I have entirely at Heart.

The humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, preſented to his Majeſty, on Friday the 18*th Day of* January, 1750.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Majeſty our humble Thanks for your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

Your Majeſty's paternal Care, always watchful for the Proſperity of your Kingdoms, and mix'd with a generous extenſive Concern for the common Welfare of Europe, has appeared in nothing more, than in your Endeavours to improve the preſent State of Tranquility: This muſt be evident to all the World, from the Series of important Tranſactions which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to lay before us; and it is with the utmoſt Thankfulneſs, we acknowlege Your Goodneſs in communicating to us, that the Treaty has been ſo ſucceſsfully concluded between your Majeſty, and the King of Spain. As the Commerce of theſe Kingdoms is the Source of the Wealth of your Subjects, and of the Strength and Splendor of your Crown, ſo your Majeſty's Attention to re-eſtabliſh our Trade with that Country, on the moſt advantageous Conditions, is a freſh Inſtance of your uninterrupted Vigilance for the moſt eſſential Concerns of your People. Mutual Intereſt and mutual Inclination are the beſt Foundations of a laſting Amity and good Correſpondence, which from the Concurrence of ſuch Motives, we firmly hope will be happily reſtored between the Two Nations in all Parts, and that thoſe Cauſes, which have long interrupted them, are now effectually removed.

Your Royal Wiſdom has not been confined to the adjuſting of preſent Differences, and the remedying of Inconveniences actually exiſting: It is with Pleaſure we obſerve, that your Foreſight is exerting itſelf to ſecure us, as far as can be done by human Prudence, againſt ſuch Events as has formerly involved Europe in the Calamities of War. In this View we look upon the Treaty, which your Majeſty has lately concluded with the Elector of Bavaria, and the further Meaſures, which you are graciouſly pleaſed to inform us, are carrying on for ſecuring the Tranquility, and ſupporting the Syſtem of the Empire. Nothing can tend more to effectuate theſe Meaſures, than the ſtrengthening and conſolidating the Ties of Union and Friendſhip between your Majeſty and your Allies; which cannot fail at the ſame Time to be attended with the beſt Conſequences for promoting our mutual Intereſts, preſerving the general Repoſe, and preventing the Occaſion of any future Rupture.

We are truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in laying before us, theſe your ſalutary Views and Intentions. In the Proſecution of them the Weight and Influence of the Crown of Great Britain are very viſible; and we do with the greateſt Chearfulneſs aſſure our Majeſty of our ſteady and zealous Support in all ſuch Meaſures, as may beſt anſwer theſe deſirable Ends.

Our unſhaken Duty and Affection to your ſacred Perſon, and our Love of our Country, are the ſureſt Pledges of our Conduct. It ſhall be our firſt Care to demonſtrate our inviolable Adherence to theſe Principles; nor ſhall any Thing be wanting on our Part, to advance the Trade and flouriſhing Condition of theſe Kingdoms; to enforce the Obſervance of the Laws, and of good Order amongſt your People; and to maintain the Dignity and Strength of your Majeſty's Crown and Government both at Home and Abroad.

His

His MAJESTY's most gracious ANSWER.

My LORDS,

I Return you my hearty Thanks for this dutiful and affectionate Address. The Satisfaction you have so unanimously expressed in the Treaties I have lately concluded, and the Measures which I am pursuing, gives me the greatest Pleasure. I entirely rely on your Zeal and Support, in bringing them to Perfection, for the Welfare of my own Kingdoms, and the general Tranquility of Europe.

The Humble ADDRESS of the House of Commons to the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, return Your Majesty our sincere and hearty Thanks for your most gracious Speech from the Throne.

We beg Leave to congratulate Your Majesty on Your safe and happy Return to these Kingdoms; and to express the warmest Acknowlegements of our Gratitude, for Your Majesty's unwearied Endeavours to establish the present Tranquility upon the surest Foundations.

We congratulate Your Majesty on the Conclusion of a Treaty with the King of Spain, by which the particular Differences, that from the Nature of them, could not be settled in a general Treaty, are now amicably adjusted; and we feel the most real Satisfaction at the Reason there is to hope, from the Assurances which Your Majesty has received, of the sincere Disposition of the Catholic King to cement and maintain the most perfect Union with Your Majesty, that the ancient Friendship will be restored, and an uninterrupted good Correspondence subsist, between the Two Nations, for their mutual Advantage and Happiness.

We respectfully acknowlege Your Majesty's great Wisdom and Foresight, in taking the best Measures timely to prevent such Events, as might hereafter involve Europe in the Calamities of War; and we have the best grounded Hopes, from the full and clear Declaration of all the contracting Powers in the Definitive Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle, as well as from Your Majesty's Care and Attention to strengthen the Ties of Union and Friendship between Your Majesty and Your Allies, that we shall long enjoy the Blessings of a general Peace.

We assure Your Majesty, that we will chearfully raise such Supplies, as shall be found necessary, for the Security of Your Majesty's Government, and to make good the Engagements entered into by Your Majesty for the Public Benefit, and according to Your Gracious Intention communicated to this House.

It is with the greatest Satisfaction that We receive Your Majesty's gracious Approbation of the Progress already made towards reducing the Interest of the National Debt; and We assure your Majesty, that We will use Our immediate Endeavours to finish that great Work with Justice and Equity.

Your faithful Commons beg Leave to express their Sense of the Happiness they enjoy under Your Majesty's Government; and to assure Your Majesty, that they are determined to give all possible Attention to whatever may promote the Trade and Commerce of these Kingdoms; and that they will endeavour to render the Laws more effectual, by enforcing their Execution, thereby to discourage and suppress the Outrages and Enormities committed in Defiance of them.

LONDON, December 5.

Letter from Rochester, dated December 3.

"This Morning, at Eleven o'Clock, the Court-Martial began on Admiral Griffin:

Vice Admiral Hawke, President.

Admiral Chambers,	Captain Brett,
Captain De L'Angle,	Captain Parry,
Captain Surton,	Captain Montague,

Mr. Ferne, Judge Advocate.

His Charge consisted of eight Articles; which, to sum them together, were for Neglect of Duty, Misconduct, and Misspending his Time in fruitless Councils, instead of getting out and engaging the Enemy. The Two Witnesses examined this Day; viz. Capt. Boyce, and Capt. Amhurst, agree, that he had Intelligence of a Fleet coming on the Coast two Months before it appeared; and that on the 9th of June, 1748, at Eleven at Night, the Lively made the Signal by Guns, of the Enemy's being on the Coast, at which Time the Admiral was ashore, but knew it early on the Morning of the 10th, and that the Fleet appeared in Sight at Three that Afternoon; that a Council of War was then held, in which it was agreed, to fail and attack them as soon as the Eltham's Men could be distributed on board the rest of the Ships, which was done by Five; but that the Admiral did not get under Sail 'til Eleven and tho' applied to by the Captains to send a Frigate to look after the Enemy, he did not do it, and so they never saw them after."

Dec. 7. The Court Martial, which was held at Chatham for the Trial of Rear Admiral Griffin, in Relation to his Conduct in the East Indies, passed Sentence on him as follows, viz. That he fell under the 27th Article in the 13th of Charles II. viz. Negligently performing the Duty imposed on him; for which Reason they adjudged him to be suspended from his Rank as a Flag Officer during his Majesty's Pleasure.—Mr. Griffin surprized at the Sentence, did not speak for some Time, but at last asked for a Copy of the Sentence, which was agreed to; and on going off the Quarter-deck, he said, It was a hard Sentence.——

ANNAPOLIS.

On Wednesday last Jeremiah Swift was executed at Elk Ridge, pursuant to his Sentence, and afterwards hang'd in Chains.

We formerly mentioned a Schooner from Virginia being lost in St. Mary's County by two Men, who went Northward, Newton and Jones, who it was suspected had murder'd their Master and others: Since which the Body of Capt. Smith and one other, has been found drove ashore about four Miles from that Place, with both their Throats cut; and it is suppos'd they were murdered and thrown overboard by those two Villains for the sake of about 40 Pistoles which Capt. Smith had with him.

We hear the General Assembly of this Province will certainly meet here on the fourteenth Instant, the Day to which they were last Prorogued.

The Man who lately in a fit of Lazines cut off his Hand in Baltimore County, to incapacitate him from Working, was lately found dead on the Road, near Susquehannah, it having mortify'd, and he perish'd, for Nobody would give him any Relief.

Several Persons have been taken up and committed to our Goal, on Suspicion of being concerned in the Murder, or concealing the Murder, of Donald M'Kinzie, for which Sullivan has already been executed.

Last Sunday two little Negro Boys belonging to Mr. Creager of this Place, got into a Boat at Yeakley's Hole, and went a Distance from the Shore, and in endeavouring to get back were both drowned.

Custom-House, ANNAPOLIS, Entered last March 10.

Schooner Charles-Town, Thomas Dewick, from Barbadoes.

Cleared for Departure.

Schooner Katy, John Brown, for Virginia;
Sloop Hopewell, John Bennet, for Barbadoes.
